FED BROTHER SHE NEVER SAW

ROBIN CRAWLED INTO ATTIC OF MRS. CLIFTON'S HOUSE.

Had Lived Next Door, With Another Sister—Mrs. Clifton Sent Food to Him, but He Never Left His Room—Caused His Arrest at Last—Thinks He's Insane.

Mrs. Helen Clifton, who has a boarding house at 141 West Sixty-fourth street, went to the police of the West Sixty-eighth street station yesterday and asked them to help her get rid of a man who has lived for three months in an attic room of her house.

When the man was arrested it was learned that he was Mrs. Clifton's half-brother.

According to Mrs. Clifton, her mother died when she was an infant and her father remarried, relatives of his first wife taking care of the two daughters, Helen and Margaret. About six years ago, Joseph Tobin, the man arrested yesterday, met his half-sister, Mrs. Margaret Clifton, at the funeral of another brother and went to live with her. He refused to leave her house and finally had to be sent to an asylum.

He was released about two years ago, and last March moved to New York from New Haven with Mrs. Clifton. She started a boarding house at 143 West Sixty-fourth street, but could not make it a success and in June she sold out and went to live with Mrs. Clifton.

Two days after Mrs. Clifton went to the house at 143, Tobin was seen to crawl across the roof to Mrs. Clifton's and enter by a skylight. So far as could be learned, he never left the room into which he landed until yesterday noon, when Patrolman Gerhardt took him out.

Mrs. Clifton learned of his presence there from a neighbor, and each night had her maid take food upstairs and leave it at his door. She says she never saw the man and was afraid to molest him, for fear her boarders might hear of it.

Recently, however, his condition became worse and Mrs. Clifton decided to send him away.

A cab was called shortly after midnight Wednesday, and Mrs. Clifton, her maid and the cabman went to Tobin's room. Stretched out on an old cot they found a short, stout man, whose jet black beard and hair fell in a tangle over his shoulders.

He refused to leave the room and made such a racket that Mrs. Clifton was obliged to have him arrested. In the West Side court, yesterday, he was so rationally that Magistrate Barlow dismissed him on his promise to behave. When he left the court he was driven to a flat which Mrs. Clifton has furnished for him and for her sister.

LOSES TWO WIVES.

They Poined Evidence in Divorce Cases Entitled R. A. Parks of Sing Sing.

Two women, who were married to a bigamist, obtained divorce decrees yesterday from Justice Amend in the Supreme Court. The women testified for each other, and on the pooling of evidence the divorces were granted. The defendant, Robert A. Parks, is now in Sing Sing for bigamy. The evidence showed that he was married first to a woman who appeared in the case as Carolina Parks and afterward to another woman whose name was given as Elizabeth S. Parks. When his duplicity was discovered both wives joined in prosecuting him and they appeared in turn in the two cases as plaintiff and defendant.

WILSON HAD KNOCK-OUT DROPS.

Man Accused of Drugging and Robbing Women Held for Examination.

Walter Wilson, who is accused of drugging and robbing several women, pleaded not guilty before Magistrate Hogan in the Jefferson Market police court yesterday, and was held in $2,500 bail for examination on Sept. 18.

Edmund Clark, assistant chemist of the Board of Health, testified that the three bottles which were found on Wilson contained chloral hydrate, or "knock-out drops."

Bishop Clark's Funeral.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 10.—The funeral of the late Bishop Thomas March Clark was held from Old Trinity Church at Newport at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The body lay in state from 11 to 1 o'clock in the church. Bishops Dudley of Kentucky, Porter of New York and McViear of Rhode Island officiated. The service was the simple form of the Episcopal ritual and without an address.

SCARED LOVER WITH TOY PISTOL.

Then Had Him Arrested for Threatening to Kill Her Because She Loved Another.

Barbara Schoeffler, a seamstress, 25 years old, of 350 Evergreen avenue, Williamsburg, to discourage the attentions of John J. Seelig pointed a toy pistol at him late on Wednesday night, as she was leaving the house of an aunt in Oak street, Greenpoint. Seelig tried to pay attention to the woman, although he knew she was engaged to marry another man.

As she left the house Seelig appeared and offered to escort her home. She declined and on the sidewalk they quarreled. Miss Schoeffler drew the toy pistol and pointed it at him. He ran away and the seamstress started in pursuit.

Seelig didn't stop running until he reached the Greenpoint police station, but he caused the woman's arrest on the charge of attempted felonious assault.

In the Green street police court yesterday she explained that her weapon was harmless. Charles Vieth, Miss Schoeffler's fiancé, was also in court. He said that Seelig had threatened to kill Miss Schoeffler. A warrant for Seelig's arrest was issued on Miss Schoeffler's complaint of threat to kill and he was held for a further hearing.

The charge against Miss Schoeffler was dismissed.

HAD 15 POUNDS OF MONEY.

Amounted to $200—On the Cart of an Arrested Pedler.

Four pushcart men were arrested by Policeman Fitzpatrick of the City Hall squad at Broadway and Chambers street last evening and locked up in Oak street station.

Three hours later two of them, who had been bailed out, reappeared at the City Hall and asked Sgt. Burns to let them get the key of their house, which was in the cart. The sergeant sent George Agize, one of the two, back to get the key. The doorman went with him and noticed him trying to slip a bundle under his coat. The bundle contained about $200 in small coins, and weighed more than fifteen pounds. The money is still at the station.

FREDERICK S. GIBBS, III, but Cheerful.

GOT WOMAN DOCTOR'S MONEY?

Mrs. Taffen Causes the Arrest of Joseph Johnson, but He's Let Go.

Joseph Johnson, president of the Montana Mining Company, which has its office in the Park Row Building, was arraigned before Magistrate Crane in the Harlem court yesterday on the charge of swindling Dr. Ella C. Jones Taffen of 223 West 192d street out of $7,800. Johnson said the whole thing was a mistake and that he would settle matters with Dr. Taffen. When she was asked for details she referred reporters to her lawyer.

Johnson, it was said, induced Dr. Taffen to become interested in the Montana Mining and Smelting Company, another concern. She turned over to him some property in Harlem, upon which he obtained a loan of $7,500 on a mortgage.

Dr. Taffen said that Johnson allowed the mortgage to be foreclosed and made no effort to save it. She has failed to realize anything on the stock she holds, which she now believes to be worthless.

Magistrate Crane, upon the solicitation of Dr. Taffen, held Johnson in $8,000 bail or examination later in the day. In the afternoon, Johnson's wife appeared and when the case was called she pleaded for the release of her husband, and Dr. Taffen gave in at last.

SALT WATER IN OIL FIELDS.

Story That the Standard Has Tried to Wreck Beaumont Wells Ridiculed.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 10.—The story that the Standard Oil Company has deliberately wrecked the Beaumont oil field by letting salt water into it has called forth numerous denials from the independent oil men. They have also ridiculed it.

There is a certain amount of salt water in all the fields of the Southwest, but in most of the wells the oil and the salt water separate readily. The salt water is not confined to the Beaumont oil fields, but is present about the same extent at Crowley, Jennings and other places in the oil districts of Texas and Louisiana.
